I will not be available to attend on August 12 and will be out most of that week.

Mike Prysby will just be returning after being off this week, but may be able to attend later that week.
 Steve Ashford may also be available later that week.

On August 12th, I may be in Arizona. Tentatively I am scheduled to be there from August 11th-16th as part of a teaching and consulting job. I'll know more in a week.
