
From: Wurfel, Sara (GOV)
Sent: Monday, October 26, 2015 12:06 PM
To: Agen, Jarrod (GOV); Murray, David (GOV)
Cc: Adler, Ari (GOV)
Subject: RE: Lead-free hashtag?

Just to confirm. Done and done. They will no longer be using.

It was a national push and hash tag, but obviously given latest situation, that doesn't lend itself well to understanding.

From: Wurfel, Sara (GOV)
Sent: Monday, October 26, 2015 10:14 AM
To: 'Agen, Jarrod (GOV)' <AgenJ@michigan.gov>; Murray, David (GOV) <MurrayD1@michigan.gov>
Cc: Adler, Ari (GOV) <AdlerA@michigan.gov>
Subject: RE: Lead-free hashtag?

I'm on it -- my head is going to explode.

From: Agen, Jarrod (GOV)
Sent: Monday, October 26, 2015 10:13 AM
To: Wurfel, Sara (GOV) <Wurfels@michigan.gov>; Murray, David (GOV) <MurrayD1@michigan.gov>
Cc: Adler, Ari (GOV) <AdlerA@michigan.gov>
Subject: Re: Lead-free hashtag?

Sara or Dave --
Please call DHHS and tell them not to use that # anymore.

On Oct 26, 2015, at 9:27 AM, Adler, Ari (GOV) <AdlerA@michigan.gov> wrote:

This could get ugly today on social media...

Michigan HHS Dept MichiganHHS

25 Oct

National #LeadPoisoning Prevention Week is October 25-31. Learn more about lead exposure:

<https://t.co/Nt0nMn72xi> #LPPW2015 #leadfreekids

--

Ari B. Adler
Special Projects Manager
Executive Office of Gov. Rick Snyder
adlera@michigan.gov
517-599-5445