>> Hey, Ron.

>> I'll get you both. I'm not sure how fast the reporting gets put to the database.

>> Hi Brad:

>> Is there a resource online that I can check for any reported sewage spills reported by local communities?

>> If not, is there a person you could suggest I check with on the same subject.

>> With Flint drawing water from the river for drinking now, I'd just like to keep an eye on that and last night's heavy rains reminded me to check.

>> Hope all is well there, and thanks,
