
From: Water Technology <email@watertechonlinenews.com>
Sent: Thursday, December 17, 2015 12:35 PM
To: Shekter Smith, Liane (DEQ)
Subject: Mayor declares state of emergency over water crisis in Flint

View this email as a web page | Forward this email to a friend

To ensure that future editions of WaterTech e-News are delivered to your inbox rather than a junk folder, please add info@watertechonlinenews.com to your address book or email whitelist.

Top Stories for December 17, 2015

Mayor declares state of emergency over water crisis in Flint

Children's elevated blood lead levels could have been caused by corrosive river water that leached out of the city's aging underground pipes.

What the EPA did this year: Environmental enforcement results

Federal administrative, civil judicial penalties and criminal fines related to EPA cases totaled $404 million.

Purestream expands water treatment capacity in the Permian Basin

Under the new contract, the company will treat 10,000 barrels per day of produced and hydraulic fracturing wastewater for reuse in drilling operations.

Featured Content:Mineralization of home RO water permeate, Part 2

Tap water minerals must be maintained at certain levels for health and taste.

Classified of the Day:

Career Opportunity — Lavit Beverage Co. Now Hiring

December issue of Water Technology® available online

Unsubscribe

You are subscribed with address:
shekterl@michigan.gov
Go here to UNSUBSCRIBE from WaterTech e-News™.

Contact the Editor

If you have water treatment industry information to share, please contact Editor Lori Ditoro. Follow her on Twitter, @LoriDitoro, for more industry news and information.

How to Advertise

Visit the Water Technology B2B Trade Group™ Marketing Information Center.

WaterTech e-News™ is an electronic publication of the Water Technology B2B Trade Group®
200 Croft Street Suite 1 | Birmingham, AL 35242 | 888-431-2877

