Listing names is going to be problematic since there are many firms that are engaged of which I am unaware:

1) Meijer and Clorox [WISH TO REMAIN ANONYMOUS]

2) GM

3) Flint Community Foundation

4) United Way of Flint

5) Absopure

6) Home Depot

7) UAW locals

8) Similac

9) A number of faith based organizations

10) Flint Food Bank

11) McClaren Hospital

12) Hurley Hospital

There are others that have contributed that I don't have information on.

It would be easier say something like, "I want to thank the number of people, organizations, philanthropic and corporations that have engaged to address the problem. They didn't point fingers and access blame, they saw the problem and contributed to solutions, and that action says something special about this state, we rally to help each other."

I think this looks good but are we missing an opportunity to shout out all the entities that have stepped up to help? GM, Home Depot, etc. etc.?

If Harvey has the full list, perhaps it could even be attached as an addendum. The point is that a lot of people did come together to address the problem, including the private sector and various volunteer organizations. I think it says something special about this state rallying to help one of its cities.

Subject: URGENT review please -- Draft Flint water release

Team,

Please review this draft press release for the Thursday announcement in Flint. This incorporates some suggested edits to the strong draft from DEQ earlier today.

Thank you very much.
